Everybody is Talking of the Johnson-Jeanette Bout Scheduled for Next Month.

ot. 1912, by The Press Publishing Co. (The New York World). IE Jack Johnson-Joe Jeanette bout signed by the McMahor brothers of the St. Nicholas A C. has already stirred up a lot of talk. The expected opposition to it. if there is any, hasn't asserted itself yet, but here and there expressions of fear for the continuance of the popular game are heard. Whether or not any serious im-portance may be attached to these remains to be seen. Right now the con-test looks the biggest thing in a fistic way that has come New York's way since Corbett and McCoy furnished their celebrated "act" at the Garden just as the Horton law was dying. Apparently everybody wants to see it.

Nothing had been heard up to a late hour to-day concerning the details of the match or how Jess McMahon succooled where Billy Gibson had failed in getting Johnson's signature to articles agreement that he had been dodging

These interesting things will not be told until Promoter McMahon is ready to make them public. Eddie McMahon explained it in a measure to-day by saying that his brother Jess knew John-son well before he started for Chicago to sign him up. Jess had befriended the champion years ago before he had any thought of winning the heavweight title. According to Eddle, Jess had often stated Johnson to deuces and five spots for umpiring ball games on old Olym-pic field when Jack thought there wasn't th as $25,000 in the world.

OHNSON'S seeming appreciation of what Jess McMahon did for him in the "old days" recalls the story of Tex Rickard put it over on the other promoters when he came East to bid for the Johnson-Jeffries fight. Up to this time it has never been told. Tex quietly slipped into Chicago on his way Cast from Sait Lake City and saw Mrs. Johnson. The conversation between them drifted to the subject of fur coats rather than Jack's proposed fight with Jeff. Rickard soon discovered Mrs. Johnson had a weakness for the finest of furs and quickly bargained for her on Jack in getting him the fight. Tex bought the fighter's wife the that was to follow for the big contest.

ST. LOUIS. Ang. 15.—Roger Bres-nahan, who was the backstop of the Glants when they won the world's championship back in 1965, is getting championship back in 1966, is gettingt thoroughly disgusted with his job as manager of the Cardinals, and it is all because of interference on the part of the woman owner of the club, Mrs. Britton. The Duke had about concluded a deal to-day whereby infielder Huggins and Outfielder Ellis were to be swapped for Outfielder Mitchell and Infielder McDonald of the Reds when Mrs. Britton came along and called the deal bonaid of the Reds when are briten came slong and called the deal off. The failure of the trade is particularly disappointing to Huggins, who was slated to manage the Cincinnati club next season. Huggins formerly played a star game at second base for the Reds and has been mentioned as a candidate for the job of managing the team many times. As a result of the trade falling through Bresnahan is so angered that he says he'll never attempt another, and from all indications it looks as though there will be a new pilot for the local club next season.

CCORDING to gossip in fight circles Al Palzer wields powerful influence with the Boxing Commission-or rather he thinks he does Recently he offered to sea that Tom O'Rourse got back his license for the National Sporting Club if Tom would return the contract he holds with him. Now, it seems Palner is voicing threats to have the Johnson-Jeanette bout stopped. Just what power he purposes to exert in this direction may only be inferred. The Big White Hope is evidently becoming peevish. The case in court which deals with the division of his end of the receipts of the bout with Bombardier Wells and testing the va-

Over a score of matches between the Michigan wildcat and the speed demon from the "Yards" have fallen through. The weight has in the past been the stumbling block to prevent the great battlers from coming together. Last year Ad agreed to let Packey weigh in at 133 pounds at 3 o'clock for a match at Milwaukee. The bout appeared to be a certainty then, but the city and State authorities decided that the staging of the contest would be a blot on the fair name of the beer city and refused to permit the scrap.
